

CEA's Human and Civil Rights Commission presents

THE IMPACT OF COMPLEX TRAUMA IN SCHOOLS

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 2018

Sheraton Hartford South, Rocky Hill

Registration: 3:45pm

Program: 4:15 – 6:15

Dinner will be provided
Open only to CEA members

In this timely workshop, you will learn

- the definition of complex trauma
- how it manifests in school-age children
- its impact on learning, behavior, and social-emotional functioning
- how a trauma-sensitive environment can help and what strategies you can use in your classroom

Presented by Joe Ristuccia

Mr. Ristuccia is a psychologist and a member of the LIFTS faculty at Lesley University, and a member of the Massachusetts Advocates for Children's Trauma and Learning Policy Initiative based at Harvard Law School. He is co-author of the books Helping Traumatized Children Learn (Volumes 1 and 2) and has worked as a consultant to many school districts.

REGISTRATION

To register, go to www.regonline.com/hcrspring2018.

